

Your Personal Advisory

Committee

WHAT IS A PERSONAL ADVISORY COMMITTEE?

A personal advisory committee supports your personal and professional growth. Since it is often unrealistic for one person or mentor to support all your needs, it is important to consider building multiple relationships and knowing whom to go to for what.

WHAT IS THEIR ROLE?

Their role depends on the nature of your relationship and can range from (1) providing feedback on life decisions, opportunities, and challenges to (2) serving as a sounding board and (3) helping you connect with others. While your committee members may serve different roles, all know you, or a dimension of you, well.

WHO WOULD BE A GOOD FIT?

This depends entirely on your needs. Since a diversity of opinions is important, you may consider: (1) someone who is one of your biggest supporters, (2) someone who is in, or has been in, your situation, (3) someone who shares a social identity, and/or (4) someone who is in the area or field that you aspire to grow.
